Brief about the (Activity/ Event)	Every year the Institute takes up student activities reflecting the institute philosophy, "Experiment and learn" and "Connect with nature". Many people are unaware of the danger it poses to environment. Considering this fact clay model making workshop is conducted in the institute. Students explore their skills in making their artifacts under expert faculty members guidance at the same time paying their respect to nature. This activity greatly helps to bring awareness in students for reducing use of non-ecofriendly material. Students from first to fourth year actively participated.

Brief about the (Activity/ Event)	Every year the Institute takes up student activities reflecting the institute philosophy, "Experiment and learn" and "Connect with nature". Many people are unaware of the danger it poses to environment. Considering this fact clay model making workshop is conducted in the institute. Students explore their skills in making their artifacts under expert faculty members guidance at the same time paying their respect to nature. This activity greatly helps to bring awareness in students for reducing use of non-ecofriendly material. Students from first to fourth year actively participated.

Brief about the (Activity/ Event)	Every year the Institute takes up student activities reflecting the institute philosophy, "Experiment and learn" and "Connect with nature". Many people are unaware of the danger it poses to environment. Considering this fact clay model making workshop is conducted in the institute. Students explore their skills in making their artifacts under expert faculty members guidance at the same time paying their respect to nature. This activity greatly helps to bring awareness in students for reducing use of non-ecofriendly material. Students from first to fourth year actively participated.
